DEDICATION

When it came time for us to choose someone to dedicate our yearbook to, we began thinking of teachers, coaches or friends who have been of great assistance to our class. We found it very difficult to single out any one individual who has touched all three hundred fifteen seniors. We did, however, come across someone who felt has not received the recognition he deserves. This person is Mr. Leonard Emmons.

Mr. Emmons has a unique talent of being able to inspire people. It has something to do with his belief that anyone can excel at anything if they work hard at it. This conviction shows in both the classroom and on the soccer field where his students and athletes are motivated to do the best they can possibly do.

In all cases, Mr. Emmons gives the impression that he is learning right along with us. He is always trying new and fun ways of teaching or coaching which make things much more enjoyable for everyone. As a friend, Mr. Emmons will always listen. If someone needs his help with anything, he does more than he is asked.

So, to show our appreciation, Mr. Emmons, we dedicate this 1981 edition of Mitobo to you — our teacher, our coach and our friend.

Mary Jane Dupuis, Editor in Chief and
Herbert Viggh, Class President

I enjoy teaching with Lenny — he does different, exciting, clever things:

In his classroom he plays with rubberbands and geoboards; on the athletic field he plays harder than his team; at home and by himself he likes to "run in the rain".

He's my neighbor and my friend and I'm lucky for that.

Jack Paarlberg

Mr. Emmons is an inspiration to the team on and off the soccer field. To the players Lenny is more than just a coach. He takes interest in each one of us as a friend and brings out our full abilities. Personally I was lucky enough to be on Lenny's soccer team for two years, and this year as co-captain of the team I was able to have a closer look at Lenny. He was always there when I needed him, helping me to play my best. Lenny worked the team hard in practice but he was there with us, taking full participation in all the drills, inspiring us with his stamina and his strive for excellence. Thank you, Lenny, for sharing with us your love for soccer.

Don't Count the Years

Don't count the years . . . they go so fast;
Just count real friendships made . . . they last.
Then count the memories of the past;

Memories of a golden sunrise,
Full moons that silvered lakes and skies,
All nature's glow that reached the eyes.

Don't count the years. Just count good things
That you have done, that each day brings.
You've helped someone and your heart sings.

Don't count the years now gone before . . .
Just look ahead, look through life's door.

— Val Becklund

MASCO'S SPECIAL FRIENDS

Most of us succeed at Masco with no special help. Some kids, however, require special attention. You may see these kids walking around, eating lunch, or working on their paid part-time jobs. Did you ever wonder what kind of special help they receive behind their classroom door, titled C-109? Or how about what their aims and motives are in life?

These seven, happy kids are taught and guided by their teachers, Rich Gilson and Babs St. Pierre who instruct them in two basic areas: Academic and Pre-Vocational. They're taught basics such as money handling/exchange, time, etc . . . as well as tasks that prepare them for holding jobs and getting along after they leave Masco.

Kids at Masco come in all different packages: big kids, loud kids, attractive kids, funny kids and . . . special kids . . . our special friends at Masco.

To laugh often and much; to win respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.

Halloween Party

Remember October 29th
And all the fun we had?
The Halloween Party was pretty good
Some costumes — pretty bad
We had cider and donuts
And danced all night
Some people won prizes
Robin's band was ALLRIGHT!
Remember the cloud
And the hand that walked in
The five playboy bunnies
And Verna's cavewomen.
Todd and Lisa showed up
So did the babes by scores
"Super Swede" to the rescue
Of Luke and Darth of Star Wars
Some naughty Angels appeared
The Urban Cowboy stopped in Scarlett and Rhett gave a damn
Then the night had to end
What a terrific time
Let's do it again
Only this time the party
Never has to end.

Powder Puff

The Senior girls once again kept the tradition going with a crushing 22-0 victory over the Junior girls in the annual powder puff game. Despite the freezing cold weather, many spectators turned out to watch runningback, Sue Thornton, lead the Seniors to two touchdowns with quarterback, Kathy Hussey, adding a third. With just seconds left in the game, Michelle Belanger punted a thirty yard field goal.

The game was not without some added excitement, however. Though the girls had no cheerleaders to cheer them on this year, a group of Senior guys decided to give the girls some help and act as a substitute players. Well . . . they almost got away with it, but instead the Seniors ended up with a ten yard penalty. (Thanks anyway guys!!).

Thanks to Coaches Dave Booth and Glenn Harrington, the Senior girls only needed one practice to prepare for the big game — and that was the day before the game!!!

 Just Kidding (Juniors won 3-0).

MASCONOMET

The lights fade. A hush comes over the crowd of some 600 — parents, brothers, sisters, and the curious who have filled the Henry F. Long auditorium to see the class of '81's Frolics production.

The pit winds up to begin the overture. There is no backing down. Months of writing, rewriting, rehearsals, and one hectic final week of late nights and nailbiting lead to two performances on Friday and Saturday nights in Masconomet's auditorium.

It is times like these when even seniors, faced with a great deal of responsibility, can act with more poise than graduates of long ago. It's this illogical approach to the production, the responsibility, that makes it so unique.

As for the show itself, with the time allotted, it was better than any other presented at Masconomet in recent years, and the senior class can be proud of that.

The Frolics has no plot, but contains some 60-odd skits that show this senior class has talent. As the curtains rise, co-directors Carole Gaudet and Rex Rotsko, decend a ladder to explain to the audience that the show can't go on. All the material has fallen under the censor's pen.

An old man, Kent Killian, in disguise, doesn't believe it, and asks the directors if he can put together a show for them so the class won't end up being $7,000 in debt. Having no choice, the directors agree. The old man takes over, bringing the talent out for public viewing.

The assorted solos, take-offs on popular TV shows and movies, turned out to be the real crowd pleasers. Even the chorus lines were good. Both boys' and girls' lines were choreographed to perfection.

The most touching scene of all was the finale where all the seniors joined together to sing a beautiful, melancholy song. Bob Seger's "The Famous Final Scene", with its haunting lyrics, possessed the crowd. It reflected the kind of unity that truly is shared throughout one's high school years. The seniors realized that graduation is not too far away, and they wanted to let the audiences know just how they felt.

Many thanks to Carole Gaudet and Rex Rotsko for their accomplishments in putting this show together. Thanks also to the pit orchestra under the direction of Steve Caulfield, and of course to the stage crew.

What do you mean . . . NO SHOW?

THE FAMOUS FINAL SCENE

Think in terms of bridges burned
Think of seasons that must end
See the rivers rise and fall
They will rise and fall again
Everything must have an end
Like an ocean to a shore
Like a river to a stream
It's the famous final scene
And how you tried to make it work
Did you really think it could
How you tried to make it last
Did you really think it would
Like a guest who stayed too long
Now it's finally time to leave
Yes, it's finally time to leave
Take it calmly and serene
It's the famous final scene
It's been coming on so long
You were just the last to know
It's been a long time since you've smiled
Seems like so long ago
Now the stage has all been set
And the nights are growing cold
Soon the winter will be here
And there's no one warm to hold
Now the lines have all been read
And you knew them all by heart
Now you move towards the door
Here it comes the hardest part
Try the handle of the road
Feeling different feeling strange
This can never be arranged
As the lights fade from the screen
From the famous final scene

Christmas Party

On December 17, a cold winter night, spirits were high. Santa Claus visited us at the Thompson Country Club in North Reading giving surprises to those who sat on his lap and told him their secret Christmas wish — Thanks a billion, Milt!!

The air was filled with music provided by the band "Presents". While the band improvised "Lola" and "The Famous Final Scene" everyone joined in a circle and recaptured the feeling of Frolics. Thanks to Ellen Phalen, an enjoyable evening was shared by all.

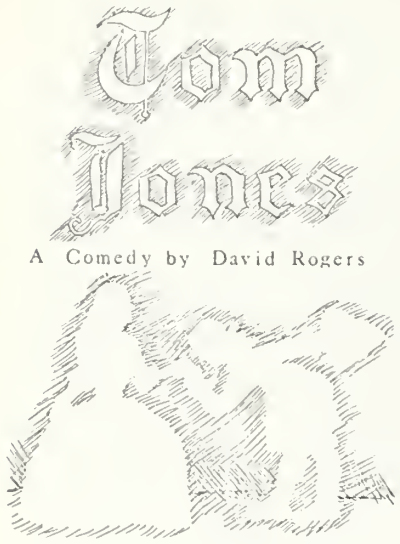
MASCONOMET PRESENTS



A Comedy by David Rogers

October 24 & 25 1980 in the
Henry F. Long Auditorium
8:00 p.m.

Tom Jones

A touch of British elegance, Irish madness, and old-fashioned chivalry invaded Masconomet this past fall. On November 7 and 8, the Masconomet Drama Department performed the light-hearted comedy, Tom Jones. Tom Jones was a performance quite accurate in portraying the 18th century era of London, England. For a short period of time, the students and spectators were carried off back into the past. Exquisitely designed costumes, English dialects — learned to precision — and top quality performances by all, aided in making Tom Jones even more believable. Tom Jones, its characters, actors, and crew members will echo in the halls of Masco for years to come.

Carnival

"In this ring ladies and gentleman, Marco the Magnificent, watch him perform his magical talents. In the middle ring Paul Berthalet and Lili will entertain you with their musical talents . . ."

Carnival, a musical-comedy by Michael Stewart, has not yet been performed on the Masconomet stage, but is destined to be one of the all time great productions of the Dramatic Department. The main characters: Lili, Rosalie, Paul Berthalet, Marco the Magnificent, B.F. Schlegal and Jacquot are lively characters being brought to life by the actors: Lisa Stevens, Carole Gaudet, Rex Rotsko, Kent Killian, Angel Centeno, and Steven Caulfield. The entire cast, pit orchestra and crew have been working diligently to bring about only the best possible production for March 6 and 7. Carnival, a musical show, full of talent, is destined to be a memorable occasion.

Football

From the start, Masco football was faced with poor local support, bad press and unfavorable attitudes. The team overcame this with desire and heart inspired by Coach Consoles and his staff. The team came a long way from the "O and 10 days" and played to a 4-5-1 record. The character of the team was seen in the last game of the season when they came from behind to tie North Andover in the final minute. Although Coach Consoles has retired we are sure that the 1981 team with the leadership of Co-Captains Tim Collins and Paul Johnson will continue to improve the team's record.

The Masconomet soccer team though plagued with many injuries, illnesses and just plain bad luck still had a good season. The team, led by Len Emmons, ended the 1980 season with an 8-3-3 league record. This year was especially hard for the Cheiftains. With the loss of 11 starting seniors the team was young and inexperienced.

The team missed the superb defensive playing of Andy Gordon for the second half of the season. Lacking the scoring ability of previous seasons the team experienced unexpected turns and occassional disappointments. We never lacked in pride and enthusiasm. A highpoint was tieing last season's Division Champions, Bedford.

We wish next years team the best of luck. Captains will be Drew Agnew, Mark Wheeler and Jeff Gordon.

Girls' Soccer

"Everyone into the corner", Mr. Murphy would shout. Groans would come from everywhere but it was sure worth it on October 17, the height of the season, when we beat Concord Carlisle, the 1979 and 1980 state champs. Our record of 18-2-2 shows the accomplishment of this past season. Not only did we have skill, we had cooperation and closeness, that were equally essential for our achievements. We'll never forget the memories of the past season: Double Sessions(?) . . . Nauset tournament . . . Concord. Another one bites the dust . . . States . . . offside trap. Thanks Mr. Murphy and team for the best experience of our life. Good Luck to Captains Paula, Kathy and Sue for the 1981 season . . . KICK SSA!!

The 1980 boys cross country team had a surprising season. They finished 9-4, third in the Cape Ann League. After the loss of many top runners to graduation, the team worked hard during the preseason which accounted for the success of the team.

The newcomers to the team were real assets. Seniors Carlton Jones and Gregg Pearsall helped in their running ability and leadership. Veterans Matt Walsh, Dave Garten, Scott Giordano, along with co-captains Chris Malone and Mike Dussault, led the team to the great season.

Rob Nentwig, next year's captain, should prove to be a great leader and superb runner. Another person to watch next year is Tom Mullen. Good Luck!

— Chris Malone
Mike Dussault
(Co-Captains)

"Cross Country has been a lot of fun this year, the team pulled together for a winning record. The practices helped us improve athletically and taught us that we could make them more exciting than simply running around a track." — Dave Garten

Girls' Cross Country

The Masco girls' cross country team did what had never been done before! They won the Cape Ann League championship two years in a row. The key to the "Bunnies" success was the incredible coaching and dedication of Coach Joseph Casey as well as a string of talented runners. Senior Tammy Perkins, undefeated in the Cape Ann League, led underclassmen Amy Walsh, Karen Wilkinson, Cindy Basile, Debbie Potter, Steph Meeker, Nancy Jane Johnson, Alaine Glynn and Kathy Koveleski. The prospects for next year look excellent. There is no reason the girls can't bring the trophy back to Masco again. Good Luck next year Bunnies!!!!

Volleyball

Playing on the volleyball team this season was a new and different experience. Mr. Faust coached for the first time. Despite harrassment by peer pressure, four boys came out for the team. The team was looked at in a new perspective. This season was a building year but we had a lot of fun. The high point of our season was the last game on Halloween when Darth Vader showed for the match. We'll always remember . . . Bum Out . . . 1-2-3 jump . . . Monkey's pep talks . . . trying to knock the tennis shoe down from the ceiling . . . "Boy Scott, you sure are pretty." . . . noodle and Suey . . . singing dee and screaming lynn . . . Thanks Dad!!

The Masco golf team successfully completed and undefeated season with a record of 16-0. The team accomplished a lot this past season such as defeating Amesbury at Amesbury, a first in the history of Masco's golf. Also being the only team in the Cape Ann League to ever win every match. State competition is in the spring and Masco is sure to be a top contender. The persons on the team have a lot to be proud of.

No matter how skilled and talented the team was our main problem was team work, which was the cause of our disappointing record of 5-10-1. However, we still managed to have some exciting and close games as well as good times that will always be remembered: DOUBLE SESSIONS . . . 2 laps for obstuction . . . Indoor Track

The Indoor Track team's season started off very slowly with three straight losses to league powerhouses Bishop Fenwick, Lynnfield and North Reading.

The team progressed tremendously in each meet with all athletes improving their times and distances. The team finished their season with three decisive wins over St. Mary's, Lynn Tech, and Shawsheen. The team was led by mostly seniors: Scott Weaver and Fred Larson in the hurdles, Mike Shaw in the 300, Carlton Jones in the 600, Matt Walsh in the 1000 and Mike Dussault in the mile.

Hockey

The Masconomet Varsity Hockey Team had a rough start during the beginning of the season. The mental errors kept us from playing our type of hockey game. The team had still set goals for itself like the one hundreth win for our coach, Bob Driscoll. We never gave up at any time. We finally got going towards the end of the season with four big wins and a tie to bring our record to (8-9-1). — Gene Limone —

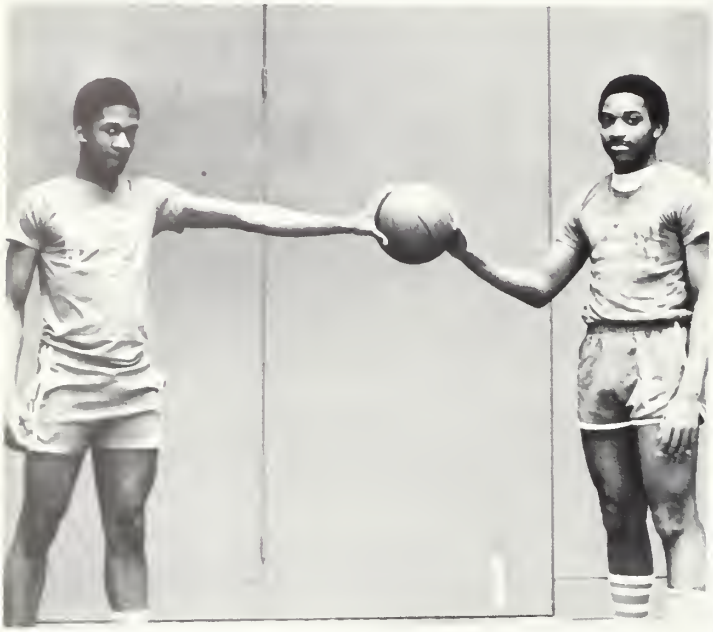
Boys' Basketball



The Chieftains were picked to finish fifth this year in the tough C.A.L. west division. But a major turnaround saw the red and white finish second with a 14-4 record.

This was a result of a total team effort which took Masco to their first State Tournament in three years.

The spirited club erupted for an eight game winning streak with six major marginal victories. The highlights of the season were Masco's triple overtime win over Lynnfield in the regular season finale, 67-66, ans avenging an earlier 32-point lost to Amesbury in the second clash, 80-74. Unity was a major part of the season. Coach Casey kept us loose ans his famous quote, "Did I go to fast for you?" Will always be remembered. Masco lost in states to Chelsea, 60-40, but next year the chieftains will return! Here are the guys who made this season an unforgettable one: Milkshake, D.C., Wimpy, Rookie, Newton, Bondo, Honky, Hitler, Wopslop, Poodle, Meathead, Whale, and the Flasher!

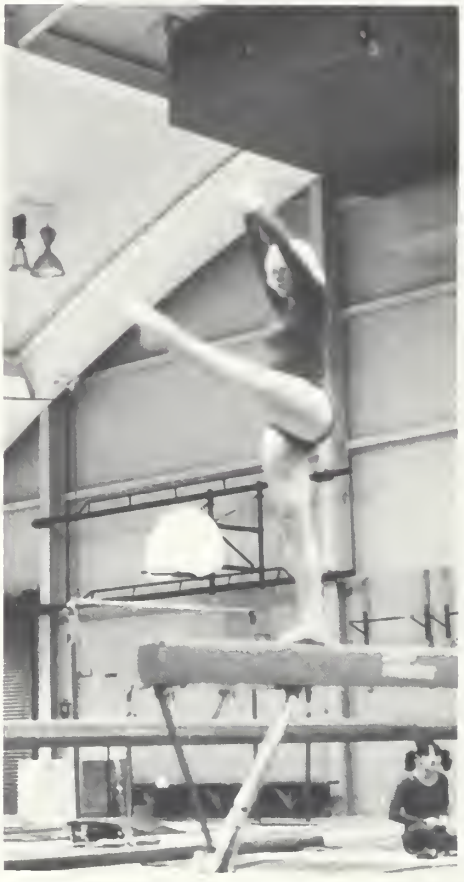
Girls' Gymnastics



The girls' gymnastic team this year was small and relatively inexperienced, yet we managed to place second in our league. Our freshman rookies, helped us to win as did the sophomores. Sophomore Wendy Gobeille, our only all around, made our high scores a reality constantly. The only Junior, Mary Ann Flynn, did well on bars. Senior Sephanie Smith pulled up our scores on vault, beam and floor while Verna Pageau did well on beams and bars. Linda Smith and Mary Nave our managers helped the team's morale, as did Lee who was always smiling and ready to help.

Boys' Gymnastics

The boy's gymnastics team had a 4-6 win/loss record and achieved many scores in the mid-eighties. One reason for the teams high scores was due to spectacular performances by Tom Herdan, Al Bishop, Herb Viggh, John Denman, and Jim Bernstein. Tom Herdan took a third place medal on floor at the League meet and placed 12th at the State meet with a score of 7.9. The younger gymnasts on the team: Sean Roche, Scott Sweet, Eric Pearsall, Mark Denman, Scott Vandewall and Jim Shaw made up an important part of the team and will be a fine asset to next year's team.

Although this year's win/loss record was one of the best ever, we feel we could have done better. We lost key meets due to injuries, but we could not have achieved any of our team or personal goals without the expert coaching of Ed O'Bara.

All in all this was a young team but it had the dedication for a good season. — Jim Bernstein (captain)

The Varsity Ski Team finished the season just before the draught — good timing! The girl's were nearly undefeated, once again, beaten only by Haverhill. They placed second in the Merrimack Valley League. Consistently great performances by Chris Merrill, Sue Brisbois, Jenny Haseltine AND Dee Leonard qualified them for the State races in the Berkshires. Among the top boy racers were Matt Andrews (speed demon!), Bill Yanakakis, Paul Johnson and both McAdoos. The team has potential and hopefully with a bit more snow and practice they ought to get it together for a successful season next year. Good luck with the racing, snow and 2½ cuts!

"OCSAM"
We've traveled down this lane so long
Endicott road you'll soon be gone.
Good ole Masco — you "DEAR" fortress,
Our love for you we can't express.
Demerits, Detentions, 2½ Deductions,
We'll hold them all so dear.
Problems, Pranks, and Punishments,
We'll cherish every year,
In 5 years we'll remember, when we unite again.
Dear Masco . . .
The school, the faculty, the memories,
That made our lives begin!!

— L. Maria

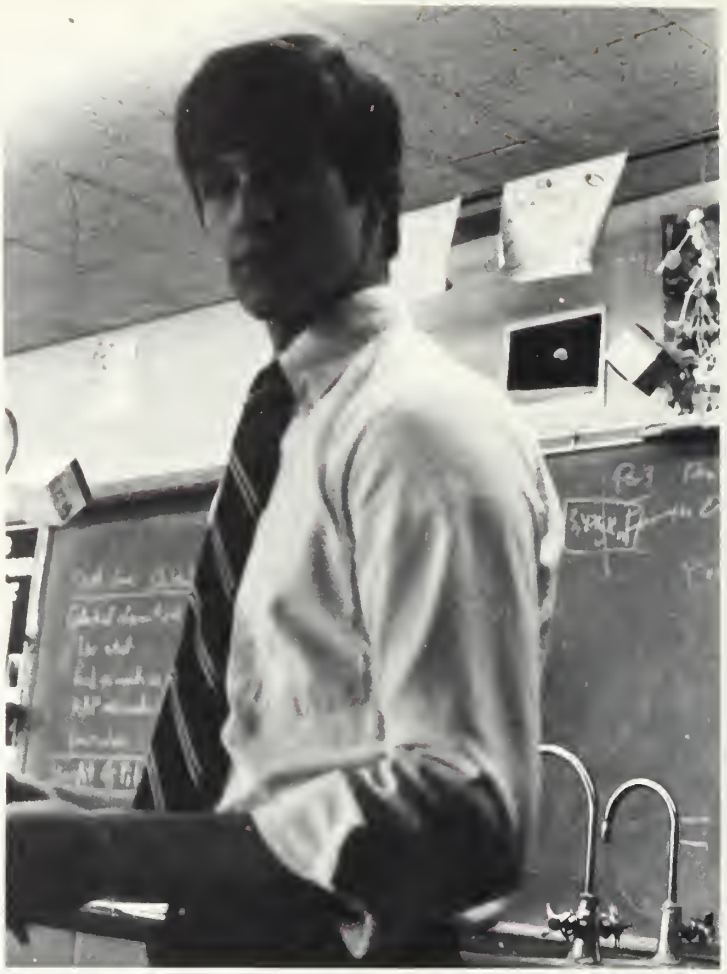
Why do we wait till a person's left
Before we tell their worth?
Why do we wait why not tell them now
They're the finest on earth?
Why do we wait till a person's left
To send them flowers galore,
When a single rose would have meant so much
If we'd taken to their door?
Why do we wait till he cannot hear
The good things that we might say?
Why put it off, why not tell them now
And share in their joy today?
Of course we're busy, that's our excuse,
But why oh why do we wait
To tell a person our love for them
Until it becomes too late.

— Andy Gordon



Future Warfare

A burst of sparkling dawn rains upon my world,
An innocent child sees beauty
but the dove seeks shelter;
for it is wise . . .
The storm approaching brings charcoal rainbows of bursting ebony.

Where's my willow weeping with swaying branches quivering in the breeze its tears drowning
the flowers wilting
pedals to ash, poof
Splendor to dust.

Then . . .

Now

Facing Graduation

Facing of old and facing of new,
People we know and people we knew.
Growing together and now a new start,
Coming together and moving apart.
At graduation we all grow nearer,
And all our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final goodbye, one last embrace and one last cry.
A "Keep in touch" and a "promise I will"
a "remember when", but better still,
A place in my heart you'll always stay,
This is what is said as we go our own way.

— Anon —

You made me feel loved when
I was down and blue,
If you leave me now I swear
I'll find someone new.
I'll forget our meaningful moments that we once shared,
I'll forget the times we sat around and didn't talk just glared.
Holding each other was truly a loving thing,
If you leave me now there'll be someone new for me to cling.
I'm not trying to scare you or burden you with guilt,
I'm just trying to make you realize
We'll lose all we finally built.
So, Darling please don't leave me
'cause things just wouldn't be the same,
Just think if you leave me now
I'll have no one left to blame.

— Elizabeth Harvey

A Winter's Dream

My memory dances in a daydream field of Blackeyed Susans' yield;
Flightfully I drift in the sight of the swaying wind,
Soft, delicate, whispering greens clutch their petals as they absorb the sun.
Strands of wild wheat cuddle softly with the field's growth,
My memory holds the flexible flower of summer's secure warmth.
Oh August midday draught your dust is warm and scent is dry,
How do you keep your petals moist as morning dew?
Calm feelings freeze.
Icicles' droplets catch my eye and bring me back under winter's sky,
I look out past my window sill upon the snowcovered fields so dead and still.

THE GERMAN EXCHANGE

The German Exchange lasted only three and one half weeks but it had to have been one of the most enjoyed experiences that we have had during our high school years. The Exchange was from February 17 to March 12, 1980. During our stay in Saarbrucken, we visited Castles and Churches, Crystal and Porcelain Factories, Iron Works and Coal Mines and some of us were able to visit France Luxembourg or the ancient Roman-German City of Trier. Thanks to Miss Skudra and our German Host Families we were shown a new culture and a new country that was like a new world to us. We will never forget the Memories . . .

FRENCH EXCHANGE — CHAMPIGNY SUR MARNE 1980

. . . And as she will always welcome lovers, Paris welcomes them with a tender smile. And when you have to leave, you will carry a bouquet of memories, each fragrance reminding you of a person called France . . .

On April 14, 1980 Masconomet students embarked on an unforgettable experience — three weeks in Champigny sur Marne, a small suburb of Paris. In these three short weeks we learned so much about France and its culture. Many day and overnight trips were scheduled. We spent a day in Berry, a province south of Paris and went on day trips to Paris to see Le Tour Eiffel, L'Arc de Triomphe, Notre Dame, Le Pompidou and to stroll along Le Champs Elysees. During the second week of our stay we went on a three day trip to the coast to a region called Bretagne.

None of this would have been possible without the efficient organization of Mrs. Sylvia Disenhof. It was she who founded the French Exchange Program with Champigny in 1976 and many Masconomet students have participated in this wonderful experience thanks to her. Mrs. Disenhof, who is retiring this year, will be greatly missed.

Every day in France brought a new memory . . . "Bretagne Bus", 11 Muskateers, "France smells like cake", du vin, du pain et du Boursin, cafes, motos, booms, 3 Bo Dereks, linked arms and locked hearts.

April love story

Spanish Open Door Program

In November 1980, Masco welcomed seventeen year old Ana Taraceno to America. Ana was an exchange student from Guatemala, and she stayed with us for three months. During that time she made many friends at school and participated in many activities. Not only was she a loyal Cheiftan football fan and basketball fan, Ana also wrote papers for Rhetoric class, attended a number of Spanish club meetings, and even appeared in the Girl's Chorus Line of the Senior Frolics. Her time away from school was spent shopping, sightseeing in Boston, and writing letters home to her family. Ana was a soft-spoken, yet very well liked girl, and we were all sorry when the day came to say "Adios."

— Michelle Gaudrault

Heddy Ramirez Lainez is from Tegucigalpa, the capitol city of Honduras. She is seventeen and attends the University of Honduras. She is planning to major in architecture. She is pretty and very friendly and had many friends during her stay. While Heddy was here, she visited Boston several times and also visited other places of interest in the area. Heddy saw her first snow, experienced the coldest weather ever and went skiing twice. I hope she enjoyed her stay as much as we enjoyed having her.

— Barbara Krause

My first sister, Regina Zuniga from El Salvador, came in November 1980. With her, I shared many fun times that I will cherish forever. I'll never forget the look on her face when I went in one morning to wake her up and said, "Regina, look out the window." She crawled out of bed, half asleep as I put up the shade. Her eyes flashed open in an instant as she saw white puffy snowflakes floating to the ground. "Oh . . . it's beautiful!", was all she could say as she stood at the window. One of Regina's most "famous" quotes that we laughed endlessly about was . . . "Andy looks nice in his suitcase." (Instead of saying that he looks nice "in his suit"!).

Regina had a bubbley personality and always smiled. She added a lot of fun to our family and we'll never forget her. She left on January 19, 1981, but as her mother requested — not until she spoke like a gringa. I love you, Regina.

Sylvia Disenhof is a born teacher with a zealous love of learning and moral integrity. It has been her professional goal to transmit these attitudes to her students. The French Club, numerous theater trips, sumptuous French dinners, the Paris exchange trip, all these opportunities for students in some way strive from Mrs. Disenhof's efforts to make French culture a reality to Masconomet students. We salute you, Madame.

— William Spencer
Foreign Language Department Head

Madame Disenhof is one of the most brilliant and inspiring people I have ever met. Her qualifications to be a language instructor are lenghty and impressive. It is very rare to have a beautiful person with so much knowledge who cares enough to give the utmost to her students. She will be missed and remembered by all who know her.

HAVE FAITH IN YOURSELVES.

Working with you has strengthened my faith in you and all the students that I work with daily.

Senior Class Advisor

From the first exchange of ideas to the excitement of meeting the color deadline and watching the ad drive soar to making the big deadlines in fine style, being advisor to the MITOBO staff has been a pleasure, I congratulate this year's staff on a superb job and thank them for making my job so enjoyable.

Alison D'Amario
Yearbook Advisor

Working with the Class of 1981 made my job as Financial Advisor an easy task.

The enthusiasm in selling ads, generated by David Garten, resulted in the greatest amount ever raised by a Senior Class at Masconomet. You folks worked together very well to surpass your common goal.

It was a distinct pleasure to work with you. Congratulations for a job well done and good luck be with you in the future.

behind the scene people

MJ — I have the optimum respect for your work and fairness put into the yearbook. You've strived for something different and professionally organized and it has happened! You put the yearbook first in your very demanding and busy life — quite an achievement but proving that if something is improtant to you then it receives an abundance of attention. You never once failed to ask, "Well what do you think?" before going ahead with something — an example of your sensitivity and maturity. You and I have grown from acquaintances and have formed a bond that I'm sure will be everlasting. I'm glad to have worked with you — you who are so multi-faceted in your successes. Love ya,

Cathy

Working with our assistant editor, Cathy Yates, has been nothing less than fantastic. Not only was Cathy a hard worker, devoted and extremely reliable but her enthusiasm and optimism kept the entire staff in good spirits even during our most stressful situations.

Well, Cathy . . . WE DID IT!!! We have completed our 208 page "Book of Memories". Thanks for being such a great friend as well as a superb partner. Love always, — MJ

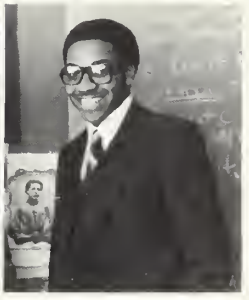
Liz — you stuck to it! What an asset you've been to this yearbook! The seemingly forever hours spent in the dark . . . (the darkroom) were obviously well spent. All your rushing around, clicking your camera at posed groups of people, at quick moving athletes and especially your camera — happiness in the halls. We could safely depend on you getting things done even during the most hectic times. Thank you for your amazing output of energy. Love ya Sciz!

Nancy — As our Art Editor you showed that you had the potential and willingness to put forth your greatest effort. Your dividers, organization of baby pictures, and most of all the beautiful job you did on the cover are all greatly admired and appreciated. Thank you for being a strong and honest artist.

Thanks to Dave Garten, our #1 businessman, our yearbook was not a 6 page booklet full of drawings!! Dave's organization and enthusiasm succeeded in helping our class sell an extraordinary amount of advertisements allowing us to have an additional 32 pages as well as reducing the cost of our yearbook. Congratulations on a job well done.

A major reason why sports editing was easy was because of Anne. We had a lot of fun. Times like trying to decide what team pictures to use, we stared at each other, closed our eyes and said, "Boila". Anne was the architect. She sketched the layout. I'd say, "Ummm, looks fine . . . great A.P.". Anne, you're the greatest!

— Milt —



After we got it, it was fun and easy. What made it that way was Milt. He's a great person to work with, as well as a great friend. We made a good team if I do say so myself. Milt had an eye for good, emotional pictures. Some times though we'd end up picking pictures differently than anyone else . . . eeny, meeny, miney, moe . . . Thanx for a terrific experience, and friendship, I'm going to miss you.

"A.P."

Special thanks to . . .

Those who contributed artwork — Bob Schmitz, Kris Leonard, Ricky Carr, Chris Petersen, Andy Blaus and Delia Lockwood.
Those who contributed photographs — Lisa Eschenbach, Tom Brown, Dale Hamsen and Sue Canning.
Those who typed — Tracy Cyr, Carolyn Raynard, Val Klassen and those who attempted to type!
Mr. and Mrs. Dupuis for putting up with our very late nights and the clutter in their living room!
Mr. and Mrs. Yates for putting up with the mess before it was transported to the Dupuis'.
